Cut on Russian Lines

A style, and one of the easiest for shown in the dress pictured here. It ed to commonplace materials.

is a style especially well adapted to innocent of a waist line, and because

Imagine the effectiveness of a or black used instead of blue will

The Widely Featured Godet Veil

PHE fad of the hour is the straight-, of these pretty veils, and anyone can hanging ample veil, rippling about afford to indulge in a fad that costs the lower edge and just as full as it so little. The prettiest touch is added well can be made. It is of dotted or by tacking a rose or a small nosegay although a warm gray or mode or left side. This is the very latest trick

The usual binding is a narrow fold fashion would have us follow, the of black satin. A recent arrival is latest muffs are infinitesimally small.

the black veil with binding of white Quite absurd do they appear after satin. A few varieties are bordered the huge pillow affairs we have been with ribbon an inch wide, but the cheerfully hauling around with us for great majority of all the veils are cur the past few seasons. It may be that circular, hang to a point a little below the long, tight sleeves, fur banded as the shoulders, and are bound with a they are on the modish suit, interfere

An extreme of the mode is made of mands that a smaller affair be deter and the opening is hemmed in a parchment-colored woolen rep trim-

narrow hem into which a round elastic | med with braid, very wide silk braid with a narrow fold of white satin. The with very narrow braid in black, and veil is adjusted to the hat by the elas- the buttons are wooden, matching the tic cord and hangs full, and in points, parchment hue, while there is an odd

It is an easy matter to make one in black and white checked velvet.

more and more being used in house of which give the strange wooden box a square of black filet net having signed for her comfort,

The latter are often finished ing.

with a lace pattern about the lower edge, which does not interfere at all small solid squares scattered over its surface. The net is a yard wide. A circular piece is cut out from the cencord is run. The edges are bound with their being bound.

narrow fold of black satin.

to waist line.

altogether out of the ordinary.

prove quite as handsome.

plainness.

5%

The Million Dollar Mystery

By HAROLD MAC GRATH

Illustrated from Scenes in the Photo Drama of the Same Name by the Thanhouser Film Company

(Copyright, 1914, by Harold MacGrath)

nothing about your private feuds.

The spy tumbled out as he had

For a long time the leather box

across which was inscribed "Stanley

A busy spider had woven a trap

The box was still badly stained from a certain time it was quietly with-papers was also withdrawn. The box street and entered the nearest saloon.

It was Braine's lieutenant, however,

"He will go to the opera. He will

"And the next thing is to get the number of his box." This Braine had no difficulty in doing. "So that's all

It Was Stealthily Opened.

and registers from Paris. I'll show

"And what are these documents?"

"Ah, that's what we are so anxious to find out. Some papers are going sian spy and Jones or his agents.

tally I am certain. That is why

I am going to get them if there has to be a murder at the opera tonight. Norton has been to Washington. He was seen coming out of the Russian embassy, from the secretaries of state and war and a dozen other offices. I've got to find

"It means that the time has come for us to fly," said Olga. "We have failed. I have warned you. We have still plenty of money left. It is time

we folded our tents and stole away quietly. I tell you I feel it in my bones that there is a pit before us some

"The white feather, my dear?"

"There is altogether some difference

"I shall never give up. You are him to accomplish his task, but he manages it; and although he is obliged to work most of the time, because the surface of the hole is continually freezing, he keeps it open all winter,

Seals have been known to drill

tic the seal selects a spot and begins known.

BORING THROUGH THE ICE | der his tough, thick skin he has an | this manner through 50 feet of solid | deal to be learned from the way a to drill a hole to the surface by press. It is at these "seal holes" that the ing his warm nose against the ice. No. polar bear seeks food in the winter, between the white feather and com-

where; and if you force issues we shall ily.

out just what all this means."

all fall into it."

and obtains air.

non-sense caution."

have a box. Doubtless they have arranged to deliver the papers there."

who took the news to Braine.

"We have succeeded."

"Good!" said Braine.

Jim's work was done.

way; I am not a peaceful man."

CHAPTER XXI.

eye and hand, and he confessed the A Packet of Papers. Jim said nothing at first about his why and wherefore he had sought the adventure to Jones, whom he met keyhole of Servan's room. 'We are after this butler. Wherehalf an hour later.

"Was it necessary to keep that in ever he goes we follow." visible letter?" he asked. "No." said Jones.

Would it have given our affairs a over some property Mr. Hargreave serious turn if it had fallen into alien left in France for sale. I know handa?"

"Decidedly," answered Jones. "It Now, get out. But keep out of my would mean flight for the Black Hundred or a long time under cover, if our friend Braine learned that Russia | tumbled in, by an act of gravity; and was now taking an active interest in Servan was alone. He spent two the doings of the Black Hundred. And days in comparative idleness. Then eventually all our work would have things began to wake up. to be done over again."

"You look a bit mussed up. Anything happened?" asked the keen-eyed Hargreave" lay in peace undisturbed.

across the handle to the quaint lock. Nothing much. I made a cigarette out of the letter and smoked it." its immersion in the salt water. At Jones chuckled. "I see that you have had an adventure of some sort; but it can wait." stealthily opened. A hand reached in "I't can."

"Because I want you to pack off to and when it withdrew a packet of

I want you to interview those officials who are most familiar with the extradition laws."

"What I wish to learn is this: Can a man, formerly undesirable, take out naturalization papers and hold to the protection of the United States govrnment? That is to say, a poisoner, enaced by Siberia, becomes an Am-ican citizen. He is abducted and carried back to Russia. Could he look a box that night at the opera. Furto this government for protection? That is what I want you to find out." "That will be easy. When shall I well satisfied. He dressed carefully

"As soon as you can pack your and inquired if his box tickets for the

"That's always packed," replied the that they had. Instantly the spy, who reporter. "You see, I'm eternally had dared to linger about the hotel, shunted hither and you, at a moment's overhearing this conversation, deternotice, so I always have an extra grip | mined to notify Braine at once. And packed for quick travel."

"The Russian agent wants Braine, determined not to lose sight of this Vroon, and the countess; and tonight man whom he had set himself to I'm going to try to point them out to watch. hlm. It would satisfy me more than sbything I know to eliminate this Jim by another. Jim had learned precious trio in Russian fashion. It's what he desired: that the Russian Agrough; and once accomplished, agent would be followed to the opera good-day to the Black Hundred in Am- and that it was going to be difficult erica. The organization in Russia to hand the documents to him. The has still some political significance, spy entered a drug store and tele-

"I'll take the first train out. But you will tell Florence?"

"And take care of your own heels. "I know it; but the watcher could learn nothing. Henri Servan as a name will suggest nothing to the fool who followed me. Besides, we both knew that he was trying to peek through the keyhole. That hotel, you know, still retains the old-fashioned key-

"To keep the maids in good humor, suppose," laughed Jim. "Well, I must be on my way to make that flyer." The two shook hands and Jim hurried off. The butler watched him till he disappeared down the subway. "He's a good lad," he murmured, "and a brave lad; and money is only an incident in human affairs after all. I'll be a good angel and let the two

be happy, since they love each other and have proved it in a thousand Meanwhile the Russian agent settled down before his writing portfolio; and tince or twice as he wrote he thought he heard a sound outside the door. No doubt this butler of Hargreave's had been watched and followed. By and by he rose, drew his revolver, and tiptoed to the door obliquely so that fixed. He calls himself Servan the watcher outside might not become aware of his approach. Swiftly he the fool that he has no moulik to swung back the door and the member | deal with this time." of the Black Hundred stumbled into the room. Almost instantly the Rus- asked Olga. sian caught him by the collar and "What were you doing outside my to be exchanged between this Rus-That these papers concern us vi-trying to collect his thoughts. "A spy of some sort, eh?" "I'm a detective," said the man finally, thinking he saw his way clear. "And what did you expect to learn by looking through the keyhole of my Servan laughed. "Show me your badge of authority." The man fumbled in his upper pocket, hoping against hope that the muzzle of the revolver would waver.

"You're an ordinary thief," declared the Russian; "and as such I shall instantly hand you over to the hotel authorities unless you tell me exactly who and what you are."

The man remained dumb. He hung If he told the truth the organization would soon learn the truth; if he kept still he would be lodged in jail, perhaps indefinitely, for he hadn't a sav-

Seals Have a Laborious Method of

Keeping Themselves Supplied

With Air.

Not many people know how the seal

o the far North gets air when the Arctic ocean is entirely covered with

The small spotted seal, which is a hair seal, and not a fur bearer, is the hardy dweller of the northern waters, remarks the Youth's Companion. Un-many feet of ice.

free to pack up and go if you wish. As for me, I'm going to fight this out to the bitter end." "And take my word for it, the end will be bitter." "Well?"

"Oh, I shall stay. You know that my future is bound up 'n yours. In the old days my advice generally ap-

"Enough of this chatter. I've got to die some time; it will be with my face toward this man I hate with all my soul. You trust to me; I'll pull out of this ory police record. Presently his stunningly for the opera tonight and this would happen. Keep perfectly leave the rest to me." nerve gave way in face of the steady

Olga shrugged. She was something of a fatalist. This man of hers had suddenly gone mad; and one did not reason with mad people.

"What shall I wear?" she asked calmly. "Well, you've wasted your time, my man. All I am here for is to take "Emeralds: they're your good luck stones. You will go to the box before I do. I've got to spend some time at the curb to be sure that this Servan chap arrives. And it is quite possible that our friend Jones will come later. If not Jones, then Norton. I was a fool not to shoot him when I had the chance. We could have covered it up without the least difficulty. But I needed the information about that paper. With Norton going to Washington and Jones conferring with this Servan, I've got to strike quick. It concerns us, that I'm certain. Perk up; we've lots of cards in our sleeves yet. Be at the opera at eight-thirty. Pay no attention to any one; wait for me. Remember, I shan't write or send any Braine and His Accomplice Plan Cap phone messages. Be wary of any trap drawn from its hiding place. It was like that to get you outside. Now, I'm was again locked and lowered; and "I have important business in the presently the spider returned to find city tonight. Under no circumstances that his cunning trap had been toleave the house. I shall probably be tally destroyed. With the infinite pafollowed. And our enemies will have tlence of his kind he began the weavneed of you far more tonight than at ing of another trap. Perhaps this any previous time. I shall not send would be more successful than ics you phone or written message. You have your revolver. Shoot any strange Later Henri Servan received a teleman who enters. We'll make inquirphone call. He was informed that his ies after."

> Jones approached Florence immediately after dinner.

purpose in America would be real-"We are near the end?" whispered ized by his presence at such and such Florence. "Very near the end."

ther information could not be given "And I shall see my father?" over the telephone. Servan seemed Jones bent his head. "If we suc-that evening, called up the office clerk "There is danger?" thinking of her opera had arrived. He was informed "There is always danger when I leave this house. So be good," the butler added with a smile. "And Jim?"

"He has proved that he can take at the same time, Norton, in disguise, care of himself." "Tell him to be very careful."

"I'll co so, but it will not be neces sary;" and with this Jones set forth The spy left by one entrance and upon what he considered the culminat ing adventure.

The usual brilliant crowd began to pour into the opera. Braine took his stand by the entrance. He waited a long time, but his patience was re- don't know him." but on this side of the water it is phoned. Jim waited outside. When warded. A limousine drove up and out of the door came his man, who looked about with casual interest. He dismissed the limousine, which wheeled slowly around the corner where it could be conveniently parked. Then Servan entered the opera-Braine hurried around to the limousine. The lights, save those demanded by traffic regulations, were out. The chauffeur was huddled in his seat. "My man," said Braine, "would you like to make some money?" "How much?" listlessly. The voice was muffled.

"Twenty." "Good night, sir."

"Fifty." "Good night and good morning!"

"A hundred!" "Now you've got me interested. What kind of a joy ride do you want?" "No joy ride. Listen."

Briefly the conspirator outlined his needs, and finally the chauffeur nodded. Five twentles were pressed into his hand and he curled up in his seat again. Servan entered his box. In the box next to his sat a handsomely gowned young woman. He threw her an idle glance, which was repaid in kind. Later, Braine came in and sat down

"Everything looks like plain sailing," he whispered.

Olga shrugged slightly. During the intermission between the first and second acts. Servan took the rear chair of his box, near the curtains. Braine, watching with the eyes of a lynx, suddenly observed the cur- it's nothing to cry over." tains stirring. A hand was thrust through. In that hand was a packet of papers. With seeming indifference and ear-piercing music as he splut-Servan reached back and took the papers, stowing them away in a pocket. Braine rose at the beginning of the

"Where are you going?" asked Olga

"To see Otto." A bold attempt was made to rob Servan while in the box, but the timely arrival of Jim frustrated this plan. So Braine was forced to rely on the chauffeur of the limousine.

As Farrar's last thrilling note died away Braine and Olga rose. "Be careful. And come to the apartments just as soon as you can." "I'll be careful," Braine declared eas-

When Servan entered the limousine he was quietly but forcibly seized by two men who had been lying in wait was heard to "read:" for him, due to the apparent treachery do not live in houses, and they call of the chauffeur. Servan fought val- their children Bull Mooses."

inch or more of blubber. When the ice ice. Whether or not they take turns passenger lays down his fare. That closes up the open water in the Arc. in the slow drilling is not positively chap—the thing that gave him away hand, for his weekly supply of meat.

iantly, for all that he knew what the end of this exploit was going to be One of the men succeeded in getting the documents from Servan's pocket. "Done, my boy!" cried the victor. "Give him a crack on the coco and we'll beat it."

"Just a minute, gentlemen!" said a voice from the seat at the side of the pealed to you as sound; and when chauffeur. "I'll take those papers!" you followed it you were successful. And the owner of the voice, backed by From the first I advised you not to a cold. sinister-looking automatic pursue Hargreave. See what has hap- reached in and confiscated the spoils of war. "And I shouldn't make any attempt to slip out by the side door.' "Thanks, my friend," said Servan shaking himself free from his captors. "Don't mention it," said Norton amiall right. You just fix yourself up ably. "We thought something like ture of Servan.

quiet, you chaps. Drive on, chauffeur drive on!" "Yes, my lord! 'To what particular police station shall I head this omni-

"The nearest, Jones: the very nearest you can think of! Some day, when | plump figures. This dress of velvet, I'm rich, I'll hire you for my chauf- trimmed with embroidered bands, is feur. But for the present I shall expect at least a box of Partagas out of of this and its other peculiarities it is This is demonstrated in a gown made that hundred." Jones chuckled. "I'll buy you a box out of my own pocket. That hundred goes to charity.

"Here we are! Out with you," said Jim to his prisoners. He shouldered them into the police station, to the captain's desk. "What's this?" demanded the cap-

"Holdup men," said Jim. "Entered his man's car and tried to rob him.'

"Uh-huh! An' who're you?" Jim showed his badge and card. "Oho! Hey, there; I mean you!" said the captain, leveling a finger at Otto. "Lift up that hat; lift it up. Sure, it's Fountain Pen Otto! Well. well; an' we've been lookin' for you for ten months on the last forgery case, Mr. Norton, my thanks. Take em below, sergeant. You'll be here to make the complaint in th' mornin' sir." he added to Servan "If it is necessary."

"It may be against Otto's pal. I

"Very well." trooped out of the station. At last Jones and the reporter entered a cheap restaurant and ordered coffee and toast,

"You're a wonderful man, Jones, even if you are an Englishman," said Jim as he called for the check. "English? What makes you think I am English?" asked Jones with a curious glitter in his eyes. "I'll tell you on the night we put the rollers under Braine and company." Jones stared long and intently at his young partner. What did he really know?

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

HAD REAL CAUSE FOR GRIEF Happy Event, Under the Circum stances, Brought Reverse of Joy to the Small Boy.

"Roo hoo!" velled the small hov disconsolately, as he wandered down the street, kneading his eves with his knuckles. "My dear little chap, what's the trouble?" asked a benevolent old gentleman, stopping a moment for a better view of the small, miserable one. "My sister's getting married today!" broke out the youngster wrathfully, and then again made the street resound with his lusty lament. "But, my dear little chap," exclaimed the kindly old soul, bending down to stroke the youngster's head consolingly, "you ought to be very glad your sister is going to be happy. Anyway, figured net and usually it is in black, of bright flowers to the border at the dark fawn color is liked immense- of adornment and is wonderfully pleas The "dear little chap" jerked his head free and burst into more violent tered sarcastically:

"Oh, ain't it? If-if you'd been paid a quarter a week to k-keep out of the way when her young m-man came to the house, you wouldn't be sorry when your sister had gone and g-got married, would y-you?"

Name for the Indian Children. Small people catch on to much more from the talk of their elders than grownups generally suppose, says the Caldwell News. A little girl of four and one-half years one day last week was poring over her primer. It was a lesson about Indians. The mother explained the pictures to the little "You can watch the play if you one, telling her some of the customs of the tribe, and ended by telling her the Indian children were called "papooses." The next day the girl "The Indians was the way he laid down his coin.

me across the counter with 'reverse

English'-the trick of a poker player,

"That man is a poker player," said who can flip a chip upon a table and of pasteboard out to a hurried man inch. He didn't do it intentionally.

in carrying a suitcase. "There's a great It's simply second nature."

To soften and tone down a room the land and Japan, range from the dech of drapery is essential, especial- murest effects to all the warmth and ly window drapery, which, if skillfully color needed to brighten the dark arranged, can add to the width and walls of the bungalow. The average man slaps his nickel height of any window. Fashionably down and lets it lie. This man held speaking, window draperies tend to body knows how many hours it takes and there the Eskimo waits, spear in his curved in the first joint of his run clear to the floor. The delicate forefinger and tossed it gently toward translucent mesh of madras, figured and in stained glass effect, some of the is seen. The other notable exception open weave cotton draperies and the being a bodice with flat panels, broadopen work machine embroideries are er at the waist than at the neck, all the ticket-seller, after he pushed a bit make it settle to the fraction of an hold decoration. Figured stuffs, such look of the moyen-age dress.

manded by her mother for some slight misdeed, knelt down by a chair and prayed as follows: "O Lord, mamma says I'm a cau tion. I want to be a good girl, but even if I'm a caution, please send Seate Claus just the same. Amen."

Three Things That Offend

By REV. J. H. RALSTON

$00000000000000000000000000 TEXT-And the word was made flesh. Let him now come down from the cross and we will believe him.—Matt. 27:42.

We will not have this man to reign over us.—Luke 19:14. The personality of Jesus Christ stands out as the world's greater!

disposition even to the sacrifice of himself for his friends. But when claims are made be yond such manifestations, there are hesitation, denial, and, ultimately, either in thought or word, malice. He is despised and rejected of men. The Deity of Jesus Christ.

VERY distinctive and elegant is a good illustration of the axiom The incarnation is denied-God dia not become flesh, the person who that rich materials look best when the home dressmaker to follow, is simply made up, for it is unusual and stands before men is not God, only a man, very superior indeed, but impressive. But the : odel is not suitnothing more than a man. When the proposition is made that he was not Another development in an entirely of human fatherhood, many who claim different material is equally effective. to be his friends, and even professed believers in his deity, at once object of twine-colored net, the overgarment on the ground that this militates showing the net laid in side plaits a against his perfect humanity. strong, rich shade of blue, a little half inch deep. But in this gown a silk In these things it must be remem bered that if the claims that are made for the beautiful character of Jesus darker than sapphire, in an excellent cord partly defines the waist line, quality of velvet, when contrasted which it encircles at the belt, falling with bands of trimming closely cov- below it at the front and fastening in be allowed, we are forced to accept ered with small steel beads. The com- a knot at one side like a Greek girdle. something beyond his mere humanity. bination is very fine, and dark green The underskirt is of plain net over a for he said: "I and my father are foundation of satin in the same color. one," and "He that hath seen me, hath Although there is no flare in the seen the father." These tatements There is a straight underskirt of skirt or upper garment, they are both are made in such connection that it is silk, having the lower part of velvet. roomy. It is the lack of definition of impossible to make them mean less The simply cut upper garment hangs the figure that adapts the velvet model than that Jesus Christ claimed to be over this in lines of uncompromising to the stout figure. But in the dress God. If any record of Jesus Christ made of net the plaiting of the mawhich enables men to speak of his The belt and round neck are defined terial and the addition of the girdle beautiful character is to be believed. by the embroidery of beads, the produce a gown which is ideal for a sleeves are long and plain. This gown slender figure. the record must be believed that he was born of the virgin, and that the holy thing that was born was of the Holy Ghost-otherwise the integrity of the biblical record as to the personality of Jesus Christ is properly challenged The Death of Jesus Christ. Men said as Jesus hung on the cross, "Let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. That is simply another evidence of study Jesus in the light of his death say that he entirely misunderstood his might have regenerated the race, with Cascarets. on Calvary, he invited the malice and beadache biliousness, dizziness, nervhatred of all subsequent ages. The ousness sick, sour, gassy stomach, rash vow of the Jews: "His blood be upon us and our children," has kept cleanse your inside organs of all the that race in hatred of that cross, and bile gases and constipated matter all likewise who do not love that which is producing the misery. to the relative effect of the life or tory, eyen, proves to us that where men have accepted the salvation that was secured through the cross, they have risen to the highest morality, and to the highest social culture of the best sort. It was not the life of Christ that struck at the root diffi- "I should say she had! My seat culty, but the death. "Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die. it abideth alone, but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." Martin Luished, and the rage of tyrants and heretics ceaseth on the one side, and offense on the other, and all things are in peace, the devil keepeth the entry of the house and we have a sure token that the pure doctrine of Ged's word is taken away." The Kinship of Jesus. Jesus said to Pilate: "Fam a king." He came to establish a kingdom, of which himself should be the head. and the world's history would have been entirely different from what it has been if he had been accepted by the Jews at Jerusalem as their king when he made his triumphal entry But there is something in the kingship of Jesus that seems at once to arouse antagonism, not simply among his enemies, but his professed friends. During his earthly life he was sensitive to his kingship, and at one time said that he could command twelve legions of angels and they would come

The cry of the citizens in the parable of the nobleman: "We will not have this man to reign over us," can be applied to the man of this day. Our view of Jesus as king cannot be complete until he rules as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. That manifestation must be at his second coming. when he shall execute judgment on his enemies. This kingly coming is misrepresented, maligned and hated. but it will be realized as certainly as the incarnation and the death on the cross. The deity, the sacrifice, the atonement, and the kingship of Jesus Christ always have and always were received by the world's hate.

As the plant must have the rest and darkness of night, so the soul must have its night of silence, its starlit heaven of peace, where it can hide from all save the all-seeing eyes .-Selected.

Beginning the Day.

Lord, help me to forget the graves along my backward way-the graves of dead hopes, of perished ambitions, of lost loves. Let the sun sparkle on them, the grass grow green over them: cover them up with flowers. May there come out of their depths for me only a devouter spirit; a tender appreciation and a gentler grace. Amen.-H.

Patience and determination will win for most of us nine battles of ten.-W. Stewart Royston

M. E.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sickand Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. - "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I wasia a dreadfully rundown state of health. had internal tronoles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, ticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Frank Clark, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous des for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar ta women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pink-ham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

No Doubt About It. "Does Wombat own or rent his

"Rents it." "How do you know?" "I know all right. He scratches the matches on the paint."

For sick headache, bad breath. Sour Stomach and constipation.

Get a 10-cent box now. No odds how bad your liver, stomach mission, that he became the victim or bowels; how much your head of his folly and suffered a premature sches, how miserable and uncomfortand unnecessary death, and in so do- able you are from constination, indigesing deprived mankind of three score tion biliousness and sluggish bowels or more years of a perfect '.fo which -you always get the desired results

The offense of the cross has not eased | Don't let your stomach, liver and to this day, and when Jesus, in his bowels make you miserable. Take willing and purposed death, suffered Cascarets to-night; put an end to the backache and all other distress;

cross are in league with the Jews in | A 16-cent box means health, nappitheir opposition to the Messiah. What ness and a clear head for months. has been the testimony of history as No more days of gloom and distress if you will take a Cascaret now and death of Jesus Christ? Secular his then, All stores sell Cascarets, Don't forget the children-their little insides need a cleansing, too. Adv.

> "Didn't you think the operatic prima donna had an unusually high voice?" cost me five dollars."

Always proud to show white clothes. Red Cross Ball Blue does make them white. All grocers. Adv.

"Pa, what is a skillful strategist?" "A skillful strategist, my son, is a Ready money is seldom ready when you want to borrow some.

covered by progressive young men. Fatima Cigarettes are selected by three out of four smokers of 150 cigarettes. They enjoy the mild, delightful Turkish "Distinctively Individual"

Sudan and Billion $ Gras

AGENTS, BIG MONEY selling

Real Reason for Custom of Indians and Asiatics Traveling Always In Single File.

When the Indians traveled together they seldom walked or rode two or other in single file. It has been thought | Indians. by some that this practice resulted from the lack of roads, which com-

MATTER OF CASTE FEELING | If this were the real reason for the and children domestic life is bondage. | sion the Emperor Francis Joseph was whites.

more abreast, but followed one an- at the bottom of other customs of the

The true reason for journeying, as the Indians did, in single file, seems to of their ages. be a feeling of caste. This feeling was practice, then we should expect to find The women of a Chinese household accustomed to set apart one day a that the tribes who lived in open coun. are seldom seen on the street. The tries traveled in company, as do children, when accompanying their father, follow him at a respectful distance in single file, and in the order

Audiences With Sovereigns. This peculiarity is Asiatic. How it a grievance to claim a personal audiweek on which he personally received petitions. Although care was taken to exclude those seeking to gain admission on purely frivolous pretexts, there was but little formality on those days. Persons of all classes-ranging from a peasant wronged by his landlord to The right of subjects laboring under a highly placed official who had been unjustly passed over for promotionhas warped and disfigured Hindu life ence with their sovereign is fully recomight be seen standing together in the pelled them to make their way through is well known. Home is scarcely possi- ognized in a far less democratic coun- audience chamber, and to each and all ble where it prevails. To the women try than ours. Ever since his accest he emperor endeavored to do justice.

"Thy Will Be Done." For instance, when you wish, and by every means endeavor, to be well, father.-Father John. and yet remain ill-then say, "Thy will be done." When you undertake something, and your undertaking does not succeed, say, "Thy will be done." When you do good to others, and they repay you with evil, say, "Thy will be done." Or when you will like to sleep, and are overtaken with ess, say, "Thy will be dene." In general, do not become irritated when snything is not done in accord-

submit to the will of the heavenly

In many bodices the surplice line

JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

New Muffs Are Small.

with the huge muff, so milady de-

A useful little day frock is of old to match, worked over again in places

little waistcoat, of which little ! seen,

las cretonnes and prints from Hol-

As if to show just what length

Lola, aged five, having been repri-